

Our First Family

Can you imagine the media coverage if this was the Trump or any Republican family.

The plot thickens.

Joe Biden and his first wife, Neilia, had three children: Hunter, Beau and Naomi. In 1972, his wife Neilia and Naomi, tragically died in a car accident.

Joe eventually married a woman named Jill (his current wife, the "Doctor").

Joe already knew Jill because she had been Hunter's babysitter. (Yeah, THAT seems like something out of "Father Knows Best" - marry the babysitter). They had a daughter named Ashley, who lives 'a quiet life' and is frequently in and out of rehab for various substance abuse issues.

Now sadly, the sanest, most normal one of the 3 surviving kids, Beau, died in 2015 from a brain tumor. He had been married to Hallie and they had 2 children, a boy and a girl named Natalie, who was 11 yrs old when her dad died.

Enter Hunter Biden, in 2015, to "comfort" his brother's widow. Mind you, Hunter is married at the time, to Kathleen Biden, since 1993. He starts screwing around with his dead brother's wife in 2015 ... Hunter's wife Kathleen finds out about it and they separate. Hunter moves in with his dead brother's wife, Hallie, and her two kids, and they have a grand old time.

Hunter ultimately gets divorced from Kathleen in 2017. But, before that happens....

Democratic National Committee

Hunter starts screwing around with a stripper, while still shacking up with his dead brother's wife, before his divorce is finalized, and gets the stripper pregnant. Haillie kicks his butt to the curb supposedly for this indiscretion in 2018.

OK, at this point in the drama, he is still legally married to his first wife, living with his widowed sister-in-law, and has knocked up a pole dancer. You following this? Can you begin to imagine if that was one of Trump's sons?

Mom suing Biden's son for paternity met him while working as a dancer named 'Dallas'

Lunden Alexis Rubens, the woman suing Hunter Biden for paternity, was a stripper at a Washington, D.C., club, sources told The Post. Hunter frequented clubs and allegedly used drugs while making $50,000 a month from a Ukrainian gas company — at the same time his father was serving as vice president.

HUNTER AND THE STRIPPER

He denies the stripper's baby is his, although a paternity test proves otherwise and eventually he marries yet another woman named Melissa in 2019 after knowing her for 6 days...

Does the fairy tale end there? Why no, no it doesn't.

This just sets the stage...

Enter the laptop from hell ... loaded with emails, text messages, photos, child pornography, videos, and other sordid digital images of drug use and rampant weirdness....

Hunter Biden dropped the laptop off in Delaware, his home state, to get it repaired. It seems he dropped it in some water while in a meth-induced state of mind. He then neglected to pay the $85.00 repair fee and the laptop became the repair shop owner's property for non-payment.

When the owner saw what was on it, he was so disturbed that he contacted the FBI. No response, it wasn't a "noose" hanging in a NASCAR garage. The DOJ? No response, it didn't involve Trump's tax returns.

Eventually, it landed in Rudy Giuliani's possession and he turned it over to the Delaware State Police AFTER making 4 copies of the hard drive.

Turns out, there's quite a lot of child pornography on there ... much of it involving youngsters on Hunter's many trips to China.

The Chinese Communist Party uses this as a blackmail tactic ... They supply the young girls, they film you, unknowingly, and then they can keep you "in line", while paying you the big $$ to do their bidding, like lucrative deals with your VP father.

Millions of dollars were paid to Hunter Biden for favors with the U.S. government while Joe Biden was VP under Obama.

For 8 years Hunter made the contacts and split the money with his father, referred to as the "Big Guy" in all emails detailing how their ill-gotten gains would be split up amongst all the criminals involved.

Joe Biden sold out his country and used his meth head son to do it. Biden is as dirty and crooked as they come. Hillary, Bill, and their Foundation look clean compared to him.
